IN presenting this Edition of the MELBOURNE DIRECTORY to the Public, we have to claim their indulgence for the delay in its publication, and which, although not wholly unavoidable, arose chiefly from our extending it considerably beyond the limits we originally proposed.

This delay will, we hope, be considered in some measure compensated for by its FULLNESS, ACCURACY and GENERAL COMPLETENESS of detail; and to secure these indispensable features in a Directory no care nor expense has been avoided on our part.

Still, the consideration of the public is asked for any errors that may appear, as in a work of this kind, they are to some extent unavoidable; and co-operation is respectfully solicited, with a view to their removal in a future Edition.

The Classification adopted in the General and Official portions will be found, we believe, to greatly facilitate reference; as also the insertion of the Surnames and Christian Names of the several Partners constituting a Firm.

We have to tender our thanks for the promptitude with which, on application, the Official and General information has been furnished to us.

SANDS & KENNY,

PREFACE

In presenting this Edition of the Massachusetts Dictionary to the Public, we have to claim their indulgence for the delay in its publication, and to state, although we deeply regret it, that we have not been able to send it to the printer in time to be printed in the usual manner.

This delay will be found to consist in some necessary corrections suggested by the Massachusetts Dictionary and General Dictionary of Facts; and to secure these improvements a second proof was not only necessary but also unavoidable on our part.

Still, the consideration of the public is what we have in view; and we are sure that the delay will be found to have been a necessary one, and we are confident that the work will be found to be a valuable one; and we are confident that the work will be found to be a valuable one; and we are confident that the work will be found to be a valuable one.

The Classification adopted in the General and Official Dictionary will be found, we believe, to be a valuable one; and we are confident that the work will be found to be a valuable one; and we are confident that the work will be found to be a valuable one.

We have to thank our friends for the contributions which they have made to the General and Official Dictionary; and we are confident that the work will be found to be a valuable one; and we are confident that the work will be found to be a valuable one.

THE GARDEN.—Cucumbers should now be watered, but not over the leaves, and always after sunset. Sow succession crops, and transplant where necessary. Prick out celery in the trenches, care being taken to select the finest heads; also plant out lettuces and endive. Collect seeds where ripe, and bend down the heads of onions, if drooping. All the buds should be well looked to and weeded, and this is the best time for making walks. All surplus shoots and spurs should be carefully removed from the grape vines. Those running too high should be lopped off, as also the straggling branches; and when the foliage is too thick, some of the leaves should be removed.

THE FIELD.—This is the last month for getting in the barley crop. Continue to cut and cure tobacco. Hops are now fit for picking, and the maize crop will require to be carefully attended to.

This is the latest month for planting celery. Examine vines as the grapes continue to ripen, and when the leaves are too thick they should be removed. Prune away lateral shoots, and see that all others are in their proper places. Wall and espalier trees should now be carefully attended to, and all loose branches carefully secured. Early flowering bulbs may be planted during this month.

THE FIELD.—Sow mangel wurzel, and towards the end of the month sow wheat. Maize, in forward districts, is now beginning to ripen. Attend to the sweating and curing of tobacco. Sow Cape barley, tares, &c., for early spring food.

THE GARDEN.—This is one of the most active months in the year for horticultural operations. All vacant ground should now be prepared by digging or trenching for the crops of the ensuing seasons, and the requisite dressing of manure must now be laid on. Crops for early use may be put in, and successional crops sown or transplanted when necessary. The spinach beds should now be thinned out, the ground forked between the rows, and well watered with liquid manure. If early asparagus be required, it should now be looked to and forced. Continue to earth up celery plants. Fruit trees, generally, may now be pruned; but care must be taken not to remove any of the wood till it is ripe.

THE FIELD.—Continue to sow wheat, but do not defer it longer. Sow also Cape and English barley. White and yellow turnips are now fit for pulling. This is a good season for felling and splitting timber.

Transplant cabbages, cauliflowers, leeks, onions and eschalots, strawberries and artichokes. Continue the general pruning, and remove and transplant fruit trees where wanted. Divide the roots of and otherwise propagate the various kinds of herbaceous plants.

THE FIELD.—Sow spring barley, but in fine soil. Continue cross ploughing for peas, and the breaking-up of new ground for maize. Fallows intended for turnips should also receive a cross ploughing of good depth. The time is also favorable for forming ditches and underground drains, which are of essential necessity in soils having a substratum impervious to water.

THE GARDEN.—Continue to make fresh plantations of cabbages, and draw earth to those crops formerly planted. Make a plantation of Savoy, Scotch kale, Brussels sprouts, and red cabbage. Sow more cauliflower seed, and transplant those remaining in the seed beds. Sow a general crop of carrots and prasnips. Select out some of the finest roots to produce seed. Sow celery, parsley, radishes, pot-herbs, small salad, spinach, and peas. Prune plum, and graft fruit trees. Sow seeds of the hardy annuals, and continue to dig flower borders.

THE FIELD.—Sow peas as early possible. Sow tobacco and protect the young plants from frost. Continue preparing ground for maize; that which has borne turnips should be cleared, and sown with English barley, about three bushels to the acre. Rye may now be sown, and the wheat crops rolled. Hop plants will require cutting and dressing; select best sets for planting.

THE GARDEN.—Sow kidney beans and scarlet runners. Transplant leeks, cabbages, and savoy. Sow turnips and early white and purple brocoli. Peas, beans, and other plants should be hoed up. Chill pepper, capsicums, and tomatoes, may be sown in boxes on a warm border. Everything will now require watering of an evening, but care should be taken not to wet the plants. Where nectarine or peach trees are too much crowded with fruit, they must be thinned. Destroy all weeds as they make their appearance on the borders and finish all kinds of flowerseeds.

THE FIELD.—Finish the planting of maize and potatoes as early as possible. Ground on which timber is felled and burned should now be ploughed, for the purpose of receiving wheat in the following autumn. Fallow ground for turnips may now be harrowed down, and afterwards ploughed into ridges.

THE GARDEN.—The operations of last month may be repeated here, especially if the weather should be moist. Continue the sowing and transplanting of successional crops of every description. Vacant ground should be prepared for fresh crops, and plants earthed up, and if necessary, watered every evening. The tomatoes and capsicums should be transplanted into a rich fine mould with a warm but sheltered aspect. Asparagus will soon be ready, but care must be taken not to cut the underground roots or tubers. Globe artichokes are also fit for cutting. Remove all useless shoots from the various growing trees, retaining those necessary for the next year's supply. Cut up all weeds as they appear, and continue the transplanting of the several kinds of annuals, biennials, perennials, and herbaceous plants.

THE FIELD.—Attend carefully to young tobacco, and well lean the ground. Finish ploughing new land, and at the end of the month Swede turnips may be sown.

THE GARDEN.—Sow more peas in moist weather, and seeds of sugarloaf and other quick growing cabbages. Plant out others from the seed beds. Gather medicinal and other herbs. Finish cutting asparagus. Plant celery in trenches to bleach. Sow a crop of turnips, and hoe and thin the crops formerly sown. Transplant leeks and lettuce, and keep up successional crops of radishes. Continue to pay attention to the fruit garden, as recommended last month, and place sticks to trees newly planted, or likely to be affected by the winds.

THE FIELD.—Finish sowing Swede turnips, when they are in rough leaf, the ground should be well rolled; and, after being harrowed, give them a first hoeing, and set them out wide. The maize crops and potatoes must now be charred and earthed up, and tobacco plants attended to, by pulling out suckers and removing the superfluous leaves.

DEPOSIT, ESTATE, AND AGENCY BANK.

DEPOSIT DEPARTMENT.

Deposits may begin with One Pound, or with any amount of capital and it may be increased at pleasure.

The Managing Director especially invites those persons who have never yet habituated themselves to the reproductive deposit of savings, surplus and unemployed moneys, to avail themselves of the advantage, security, and facility of the Provident Institute of Victoria.

A liberal interest, freehold security of abundant value, a legitimate distribution of money, and the general well-being, are the grounds upon which this invitation is based.

The Bank Department receives savings, surplus income, and non-trading moneys, and it loans the same on, and only on, freehold estate, thus realising a liberal interest for depositors, and extending important accommodation to the owners of freehold property.

Each depositor may nominate a relation or friend to whom payment shall be made at a fixed time, should the deposit not be drawn, or otherwise appropriated, during the interim.

Depositors are privileged to have their letters addressed "To the care of the Provident Institute, Melbourne." All such letters will be received, registered, and placed in the strong room till called for.

ESTATE DEPARTMENT.

£10,000 to be loaned in one sum, or in sums of not less than £100 each. Interest is charged only for the time money is wanted. It is payable quarterly, and only when due, and the charges for survey and mortgage are upon an economical scale.

AGENCY DEPARTMENT.

The Agency Department effects the purchase, sale, or mortgage of land, buildings, &c.; and collects and pays rents, dividends, interest, &c., on commission; receipts paid over, and deposited in the Bank Department.

The New Building of the Liverpool and London Assurance Company.

The Act of Incorporation preserves the Shareholders from any liability beyond the Amount actually subscribed by each.

The Company has been in successful operation since August, 1854, and for the purpose of extending its operations an Act of Council was obtained in May, 1855: the liability of Shareholders is thereby limited, and all necessary powers conferred upon the Company.

The site is the best which could have been selected, combining the advantages of a sufficient elevation, a central position, and the requisite facilities for extending the supply through Prahran to Windsor, St. Kilda, &c., and the public are now supplied with pure water from the Company's Stations, at Gardiner's Creek Road, and the Junction, St. Kilda.

The Capital of the company consists of £20,000, in 2,000 Shares of £10 each, of which £13,000 has been paid up, and invested in the concern. The remainder of the Capital, that is to say, £7,000, in 700 Shares of £10 each, is to be called up in two instalments of £5 per Share, the first call payable on subscription, and the second and final call not later than three months thereafter.

Two General Meetings of the Shareholders to be held annually, for the purpose of receiving the Directors' report and statement of accounts, and declaring dividends.

The profits (which are limited by the Act to 20 per cent. per annum) to be divided half-yearly.

Applications for Shares to be made to the Provisional Committee, at their Offices Elizabeth Street South (the new building of the Liverpool and London Assurance Company).

THE MELBOURNE
CITY COURT MISSIONARY AND
FEMALE REFORMATORY
HOME SOCIETY.

THIS SOCIETY has been instituted for the Reclamation of Inebriates; the prevention of Drunkenness and concomitant Crimes; the Instruction of the Uneducated Poor, and the Amelioration of their Circumstances; the Rescue and Reformation of unhappy Females who have departed from the paths of virtue; and for the Promotion of Evangelistic Principles and Practice; and has, therefore, strong claims upon the sympathies of the benevolent public for support.

In accordance with the comprehensive spirit of the Gospel and true Philanthropy, ministrations are daily proffered to all classes, ages and denominations. This sphere of evangelical and philanthropic labor in the city and suburban districts has been occupied now nearly four years. During most of this period the City Court has been the centre of operations. Reformatory efforts have daily been made upon fearful multitudes of offenders. Many female and juvenile culprits are among them. It is a mournful fact, that more than seven-tenths trace their crimes, degradation, and wretchedness, to the vice of drunkenness. In this connection it may well be recorded, that about two thousand within the sphere of the Mission have promised in writing to abjure the use of all intoxicating liquors.

From the City Court, as the centre of the Mission, truth, as in divergent lines, in the form of the Holy Scriptures, evangelical and temperance tracts, and oral instruction, has continuously gone forth throughout the city and suburbs, and surrounding country. About three hundred thousand pages of tracts, and one hundred and fifty copies of the Scriptures have been distributed.

The abodes of the poor, the sick, the friendless, the immoral and wretched, are constantly visited; and, in addition to efforts for moral and religious impressions, frequent relief is administered to the necessitous, in the form of food and clothing, medicine and nursing: This mode of procedure is most unquestionably sanctioned and sustained by the example of Him who ever went about doing good both to the soul and body.

A FEMALE REFORMATORY, or house of refuge for unhappy Females of the Town, has recently been opened on the premises of the Mission House, 77 Spring Street, and seven of the most hopeless young women of the Town have been admitted. Their present indications inspire the hope that they will yet become useful members of society; and, like unto Mary Magdalen, obtain pardon, peace, and salvation, through the blood of atonement. Many others, we have reason to believe, will soon follow their example. Present arrangements will admit the reception of only seven or eight. Larger premises will no doubt soon be necessary. The foundation of this highly important and long contemplated Institution is now laid; the work is commenced; and the beginning is promising. Our incipient operations are necessarily limited, but, lest the day of small things be despised, let it be borne in mind the germ, with care, at length becomes a tree. The sources of the largest rivers are scarcely perceptible. Let us labor on, and, with submissive faith, leave results with Omnipotent Benevolence. If, with the utmost diligence, we rescue only one Mary Magdalene from among the many scores of prostitutes now disgracing the streets of Melbourne, we shall not have devoted time, and labor, and money in vain. Who can tell the value of one soul?

The City Court Missionary and Female Reformatory Home Society will be more or less intimately affiliated with the "Industrial Home or Model Farm Institution," the contemplated "Sailors Home," the "Bible Society," the "Tract Society," and, to a certain extent, will perform the part of an auxiliary to these important institutions.

Although we must necessarily bestow more abundant labor on the city and suburbs, yet it is our purpose, so soon as the increase of ministering members of the Mission shall justify it, to extend our efforts to the interior, and especially to the "Gold Fields."

Reports of proceedings, names of subscribers, and condensed journals of the Missionaries, Advocates and Collectors, will be periodically printed and forwarded to subscribers. The reports will contain much of statistical matter regarding the moral and physical condition of the city, and, so far as possible, of the rural districts.

6. Breakfast at half-past eight; Dinner at one; and Tea at six o'clock. Rising not later than seven; retiring at ten; and lights extinguished at half-past ten.
7. The Inmates shall give special attention to personal cleanliness. Their dress shall be characterized by neatness and simplicity. Every approximation to gaudy display to be studiously avoided.—See 1 Timothy, ii., 9 and 10; and 1 Peter, iii., 3 and 4.
8. All intoxicating liquors, smoking, and the use of opium, are strictly prohibited. Every one connected with the establishment must be a Total Abstainer from the use of all strong drinks. Steps shall be immediately taken against any person introducing alcoholic liquors into any of the departments of the Reformatory.
9. When Applicants are received into the Reformatory, an inventory shall be taken of every article brought in with them; and when other articles are procured they shall be added to the inventory. No one, on leaving the Institution, shall remove any article not found in her inventory.
10. The Inmates must be careful, at all times, duly to regard the directions of the Matron; to be kind and courteous in their language and deportment towards one another; and respectful and amiable toward all connected with the Institution. The Matron will report all cases of delinquency to the Managing Director, who will, when necessary, report them to the Mission Council Board.
11. For persistence in refractory conduct any Inmate may be expelled by the Board, after the third admonition.
12. Although the Inmates will be rigidly required to deport themselves in accordance with the Rules, yet they will be uniformly treated with the greatest possible kindness; the purpose of the Institution not being to punish those who may avail themselves of this proffered Refuge, but to elevate them from their depths of degradation; to lead them to repentance—to the foot of the Cross—to the feet of Jesus, that they may be useful and happy here, and eventually obtain the life eternal.

"One word of kindness, such as said, 'Go sin
 "No more,' will sooner reach a Peter's heart,
 "Than thunderbolts of reckless wrath."
13. All Applicants, on being received, shall be required to sign the Rules.
14. The Rules may be revised by the Board whenever it may be deemed necessary.

47 COLLINS STREET WEST,

In announcing their arrangements for the approaching season, beg most respectfully to offer their best thanks for past favors and recommendations, and trust, by strict attention to business, and the constant production of novelties, to merit a continuance of the same.

Their shipments from the Home and Continental markets being all to hand, and great care having been bestowed in the selection, they have every confidence in stating that their Stock is as well assorted, and supplied with every novelty, as any of the first-class Establishments in London.

Their increasing trade having made fresh calls upon them for accommodation, they have added the entire suite of rooms over their present premises, which will be devoted to the Silk, Millinery, and Mantle Departments.

They would especially request attention to the Silk branch of their business, having made extensive purchases in Glace Silks, Gros Chrystals, Broches, Moire Antiques, &c., &c., with new Robes of the most choice designs, made for their exclusive sale.

They beg to direct attention to the list of the various Departments, as well as the numerous articles supplied by them, all of which are guaranteed of the best fabrics and newest styles.

They will have much pleasure, at all times, in forwarding patterns; and their attention will be given to any orders their friends may be pleased to favor them with, as if the selection had been made personally.

LONG AND NEILD,

CHEMISTS & DRUGGISTS,

188 BOURKE STREET EAST,

MELBOURNE,

RESPECTFULLY announce to the Public of Melbourne, that they have succeeded to the business lately carried on by D. R. LONG AND SON.

In soliciting from the friends of the late firm a continuance of that support which has so kindly been given to this establishment for so many years, they wish to assure them that they will observe the same care in the importing of Drugs of the purest kind, and give an equally nice attention to the dispensing of them, as has been the rule since the commencement of the business by Mr. D. R. LONG.

The superintendence of the Dispensing Department will be confided to Mr. NEILD, who is himself a qualified medical practitioner, and this circumstance, it is hoped, will be an assurance, both to the profession and to the public, that the intentions of the prescriber will in every case be thoroughly understood, and in all respects be carried out in the preparation.

The General Stock of the retail department is believed to be as complete as any in the Australian Colonies, and, in quality and in price, LONG and NEILD challenge competition without fear of unfavorable comparisons.
